

2. Inter Class Competiton on “ Street Play ”

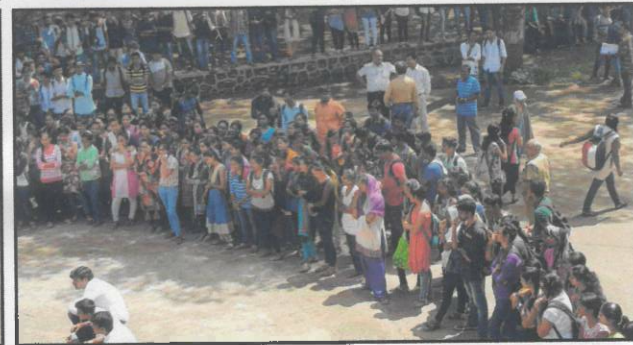

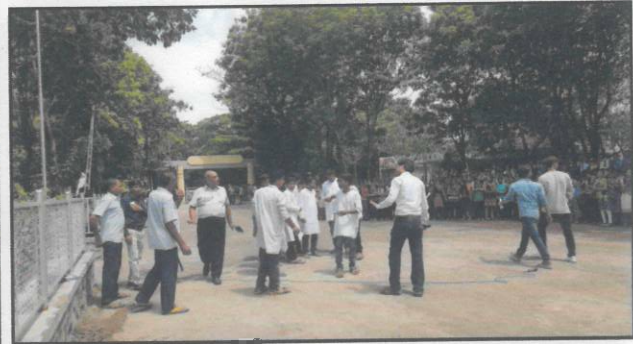

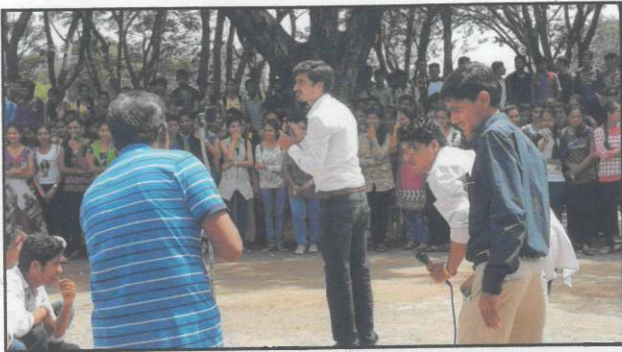

Under the banner of Saptdhara Naatya Dhara on 2/9/2016 during reassess time a street play programme in association with “Swadhyay Privar“ was organized on “Cultural and Religious traditions of India“ at college campus. Professors, Non teaching staff, NCC Cadets , NSS Volunteers and Students gathered in the ground. The proggmmme started with a prayer. A floral well come was given to the members of Swadhyay Parivar volunteers.

Volunteers showcase the essence of Indian culture and tradition. The play beautifully depicted the value of preserving Indian cultural traditions like respecting elders and Guru, Obeying law and order, Leading a disciplined life etc. The drama also highlighted the need to protect our environment, nurturing plants like tulsi, peepal etc and kindness to animals so that all nature and animal world can live in harmony. The play was appreciated by students and they all realized the value of Indian culture and tradition India has a rich culture and religion that has become our identity. Be it in religion, art, intellectual achievements, or performing arts, it has made us a colorful, rich, and diverse nation.

Principal Dr. Vikas Desai thanked volunteers for their efforts in reaching out to students and demonstrating the value of Indian Culture through live dramatic performances. This was a unique way of imbuing Indian values to our progeny the next generation. The Indian culture and tradition essay is a guideline to the vibrant cultures and traditions followed in India. Vice Principal Dr. T.G. Gohil gave information about Street play and How Street play can transform the society.

Naatya dhara Convener Prof. Tushar Desai and Dr. A. N. Solankee Saptdhara Coordinator Congratulate thankeg Swadhyay parivar and volunteers all Prof. A. J. Goel, Prof. G. A. Desai, Prof. D. D. Patel and Prof. S. N. Lad work hard to make the street play successful.

Vikas Desai
Principal,
B.K.M. Science College,
Valsad, Gujarat, India.